Say, Black man!

Who are you? You are Asiatic

That makes you first!

Yeah, that's right

Are you ready for this war?

Why you tryin' so hard to fit in this world?

This world is not designed for your upliftment, but for your fall, brother!

Black man, respect your Black woman!

She's Asiatic, that makes her first!

She nurtures you, she suckles you rich in strength

A nation's only as strong as it's woman!

The time is now, or lay down and die, Black people!
